Text for Handwriting (Primary)

The Bribbaree Show – A Century Strong

Oh, the country show, come one, come all, from farm and field and village hall
Boots and hats, hearts aglow, there's joy and pride at the country show!
One hundred years, the Bribbaree Show, October long weekend let's all go!
History of farming, tales to be told, families, friends, and memories old.
Beneath the shade, within the fence so white, the Public Bar what a welcoming sight!
A place to gather, share a seat and story, reflect on the past and toast future glory.
Running races and tug of war, pavilion bursting – there's so much more.
Flowers and cooking, art and quilts, produce, wool fleeces, and Lego expertly built.
Dodgem cars spin, clowns bring cheer, the Reptile Man's creatures can create fear.
Horses, sheep, dogs and chooks strut proud, Tractor pull roars from the diesel crowd.
Bikes whizz by, BBQ sizzles, a Luncheon Booth with country fare, a Dagwood Dog is also there!
The Grand Parade rolls proudly by, showcasing all both young and spry.
Junior show people, young women too, and this year fireworks – something new!
So, gather in, don't miss the fun, Bribbaree Show – second to none!
A century strong on a weekend that's long, it's Bribbaree Showground, where we all belong!